GOVERNMENT'S SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN OPPOSITION TO THE DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO ISSUE SUBPOENA FOR RECORDS

On March 1, 2006, the defendant moved this Court for the issuance of a Rule 17(c) subpoena to the Providence Police Department for the personnel files of the officers who arrested him. The government filed its opposition to the motion on March 10, 2006.

The government submits this supplemental memorandum to bring to the Court's attention Chief Judge Torres' April 5, 2006 decision in United States v. Robert Taylor, C.R. No. 06-13T. In that case, counsel for the defendant filed the very same motion he has filed here, seeking the personnel files of the same Providence Police officers (and of one additional officer). Judge Torres refused to review the personnel records in camera. Furthermore, based on a representation by the government and an attorney for the City of Providence as to the content of the records, Judge Torres found that the defense was not entitled to the information contained in the records. The transcript of the proceeding before Chief Judge Torres is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
By its Attorneys,

ROBERT CLARK CORRENTE
United States Attorney

PETER F. NERONHA
Assistant U.S. Attorney
